BECOME AN ASSOCIATE MEMBER

CMUA
CALIFORNIA MUNICIPAL
UTILITIES ASSOCIATION

You Are Invited

The California Municipal Utilities Association (CMUA) invites you to join our Associate Member Program. As an associate member, your company has visibility with and access to a significant portion of the state's electric utility and water agency industries and enjoys many benefits designed to expand your share of the municipal markets, including:

MARKETING AND ADVERTISING OPPORTUNITIES

- Exclusive opportunities to submit content for use in our new e-newsletters, magazine and blog.
- Complimentary listing in the CMUA Online Buyer's Guide, the gateway to products and services that public power utilities and water agencies need.
- Exclusive opportunities to post press releases and white papers on CMUA's new Suppliers News, featured on the new CMUA website.
- Discounts on advertising in CMUA digital and print publications.
- Discounts on banner ads on www.cmua.org.
- Access to expert staff to help you connect with members.
- And much more!

PERIODICALS

- Unlimited number of subscriptions to CMUA's "News and Views" e-newsletter.
- Ten copies of CMUA's Annual Directory.

EDUCATION AND INFORMATION

- Opportunities to participate in networking and professional development at conferences, workshops, seminars, and webinars at the member rate.
- Access to "members-only" resources on the new CMUA website, including white papers and statistical analysis, and the member directory.

DUES (SELECT ONE)

Small Business*/Sole Proprietor - $800 annually

Non-Profit Association - $1,500 annually

Partnership/Corporation - $2,000 annually

*Companies must meet small business eligibility requirements under federal Small Business Administration guidelines to be eligible for this level of membership. Applicants in the small business category are responsible for proving eligibility according to federal Small Business Administration standards (sba.gov) and must provide the NAISC or SIC code under which they are claiming eligibility on the associate membership application. Dues are billed annually on the first day of July.

CMUA Associate Membership Brings You Closer to Customers

1. Reach Your Customers

With associate membership, you are an active participant in California's $10 billion electric and water municipal market. Your company has visibility in front of dozens of public utilities and water agencies that serve 25 percent of Californians on electricity and 70 percent on water.

2. Understand the California Market

Associate members get insights, news and perspectives on California public utilities they won't find anywhere else, as well as access to "members-only" resources on the new CMUA website, such as white papers and statistical analysis, and our "News and Views" e-newsletter.

3. Networking and Face-Time

CMUA associate members have opportunities to network and engage with public utilities, CMUA's expert staff, state and local decision-makers and other companies in the water and power industry at CMUA conferences, workshops, seminars, and webinars at the member rate. Associate members also can view CMUA's online Membership Directory.

4. Be Seen and Heard

With membership, associates may submit content for use in our new e-newsletters, magazine and blog, and they receive discounts on advertising in CMUA's digital, website and print publications. List your company in the CMUA Online Buyer's Guide, our gateway to products and services for public power utilities and water agencies.

In addition, associate members are invited to submit presentations for consideration to be included in our professional development programs including annual conference, webinars, seminars, and other educational and networking events.

5. Shape the Future

CMUA is leading the way as California public power and water advances and evolves. Exciting and transformative times are ahead, and our associate members are a vital part of the conversation. We value your support and we welcome you on the journey.
